Don't miss this unique opportunity to secure one of Epping's rarest finds. Situated on a huge block of land on the highly sought-after Essex St, this fully renovated light-filled elegant house is now available.

Located in the leafy North West suburb of Epping, this traditional non-heritage Federation-style cottage from the 1915's has been lovingly brought into the modern world. With original features throughout including high ceilings, picture rails and timber fixtures and fittings, you will be thrilled with the freshly renovated gourmet kitchen with high-end stainless-steel appliances, modern bathrooms and abundant living spaces. Highly convenient location with walking distance to rail, shops and school, this easy-care stunning home is perfect for multi-generation family.
